

ContainerPower Energy Solutions

Austria's large solar energy storage power station

Overview

The project has a power output of 12 MW and storage capacity of 24 MWh. Slovenian company NGEN has switched on what it claims to be Austria's largest battery storage facility. The project is located next a wood gas generator which opened in November 2024 in Fürstenfeld , southeastern Austria.

Austria s large solar energy storage power station

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://websparafotografos.es>