

ContainerPower Energy Solutions

Ethiopia energy storage power station construction

Overview

Ethiopia's government aims to construct two reactors of about 1,200 megawatts each by the early 2030s. Also, the project is intended to reduce Ethiopia's reliance on hydropower. Currently, hydropower accounts for over 90 percent of electricity supply.

Ethiopia energy storage power station construction

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://websparafotografos.es>