Ghana s first solar energy storage project

2MW / 5MWh
Customizable

Overview

The project is situated on the Black Volta River, specifically on the reservoir of the Bui hydroelectric dam. The initial phase is a 5-megawatt (MW) floating solar photovoltaic (PV) system. There are plans for expansion, with goals to increase the capacity significantly.

Construction on the first phase of a 40MW solar plant in Ghana is expected to begin in the latter half of 2025, after the COVID-19 pandemic had delayed its progress. The solar project at Sege in the Greater Accra Region is near the Dawa Industrial Zone, which is earmarked to benefit from the.

Updated October 2, 2025 – Ghana's Black Volta Solar Project is a pioneering renewable energy initiative, featuring what has been commissioned as West Africa's largest floating solar power plant. The project is situated on the Black Volta River and currently generates 5 megawatts (MW) of.

In addition, fluctuating electricity tariffs and reliance on fossil fuels have driven homeowners and commercial users to explore Ghana solar battery storage solutions to achieve energy independence, cut costs, and ensure uninterrupted operations. A solar + battery storage system enables users to.

Ghana is making significant strides towards achieving universal access to electricity by 2025 through the successful implementation of the Bui Hydro-Solar PV Hybrid (HSH) system. Developed by the Bui Power Authority (BPA) in collaboration with Huawei, this groundbreaking project demonstrates the.

Huawei Digital Power has agreed to provide the complete solar PV and energy storage system (ESS) solution for what looks set to be the biggest project of its type in Africa so far. The digital and power electronics division of Chinese tech company Huawei has signed a strategic cooperation agreement.
