

ContainerPower Energy Solutions

Morocco solar module project construction

Overview

The installation started in July and production is scheduled to start by the end of October 2024. With this new capacity, Almaden Morocco will be able to produce high-efficiency modules, thus responding to the growing demand for quality renewable energy solutions in the African and global markets.

Morocco solar module project construction

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://websparafotografos.es>